

WRIT ASKED BY MOTHER GRANTED

Elva Loraine Elwell Files Habeas
Corpus Proceedings to Get Possession of Child

HELD BY FATHER, R. H. ELWELL

Washington Township Man Ordered
to Appear in Court Thursday—
Live in Washington Township

Elva Loraine Elwell petitioned the court this afternoon for habeas corpus proceedings against her husband, Ralph H. Elwell, seeking to get possession of their five year old son, and the writ was ordered by Judge Sparks.

The complaint for the proceedings was filed following an alleged controversy this morning, as the suit charges the defendant with having struck and abused the petitioner. The parties are well known residents of Washington township.

The complaint states that the son is in possession of the defendant at the residence a half mile west of Raleigh, on the farm of the late Charles H. Elwell. She asserts in her complaint that she should have the custody of the child, because the defendant is subject to a high temper and uses vulgar and profane language in the presence of the child.

The court acted upon the habeas corpus petition to the extent of issuing a writ, compelling the defendant to have the child in court Thursday afternoon at one o'clock.

A jury was sitting in court today hearing the evidence in a change of venue suit. The action was brought by Levi M. Thomas against the receivership for the Mohawk elevator company in Hancock county, where the suit was filed.

The plaintiff in the action is attempting to recover $4,151 on a claim, which he says is due him from the concern. He was formerly manager of the concern. The defense in their evidence attempted to show that there was nothing due him, and that the books showed he owed the elevator $800 that he was overpaid.

It was expected that the case would be given to the jury late this afternoon. There was no trouble obtained in getting the jury, which was composed of the following:

Ed Miller, Claude Crane, J. Ed Laughlin, Joe Bogue, J. E. Campbell, John Osborn, Ted King, Tom Foster, Marion Wagner, Elmer Caldwell, R. P. Havens and James Evans.

The Capitol Lumber company has filed a suit in court against William Hardwick the complaint being on an account, demanding $150 and for foreclosure.

The complaint of Elvin Price against William H. Alzman, a suit on a note, the action has been sent to Henry county on a motion for a change of venue.

BANDITS HOLD UP A BRANCH BANK TELLER

Escape With About $8,000 in Indianapolis at Noon—Leroy Flint Alone in Bank

LEFT $4,662 IN THE VAULT

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 15—Two bandits held up Leroy Flint, teller of the rural branch of the Fletcher Trust and Savings Company bank and escaped with between $7,000 and $8,000 at noon today.

Flint was in the bank alone when the bandits entered. Brandishing a gun one of them commanded, "lie down on the floor and do not move or I will kill you."

The teller complied and the bandits scooped all of the money in the cash drawer and on the counter in the cages. There was $4,662 in the vault of the bank which was opened but the bandits did not touch it.

SPEAKS TO 520 BOYS AND GIRLS

Russell G. East Finds Excellent Response in Township Schools to Seed Selection Campaign

LAST LEG OF TOUR TODAY

Attributes of Good Seed Are Pointed Out and Pupils Show Willingness to Select Samples

Russell G. East, agricultural agent for the Pennsylvania railroad, had addressed 520 boys and girls of Rush county high schools, when he started on the last leg of his tour of the county this morning, in the interest of field selection of seed corn.

Mr. East is being accompanied on the tour of the county by Herschel VanMatre, county agricultural agent, and Birney D. Farthing, county superintendent of schools.

The tour has demonstrated one thing—that the girls of the township high schools are showing as much interest in the seed corn selection campaign as the boys, and that some classes will have to be arranged for them at the Rush County Corn Show, which will be held in Rushville January 6, 7 and 8.

It has been the custom of Mr. East, in each school, to ask the boys and girls present, if they will go into the field and select a ten ear sample of seed corn, and without exception every one of them has responded favorably, the girls entering into the scheme even as enthusiastically as the boys.

Mr. East, in his daily talks to the seventh and eighth grade and high school pupils, has made plain to them the very great importance of having good seed to insure a good crop, and that corn growers may be certain of healthful seed only by selecting it while the corn is standing in the field.

The attributes of a good ear of corn are pointed out by Mr. East, such as its shape, the number of rows of kernels and the way it hangs on the stalk. Boys and girls are also warned to inspect the stalk for signs of disease, which would show up in the corn next year if seed from a diseased stalk were selected.

Mr. East went over these points briefly in his address before the Rotary club and thirty corn growers of the county, who were guests Tuesday, and called attention to the statement of a Chicago crop statistician, who estimates that next year's corn crop will not be so good as this year's, taken as a whole, due to the poor quality of the seed that is certain to be used from this year's crop. Mr. East said he had seen no better corn prospects than in Rush county.

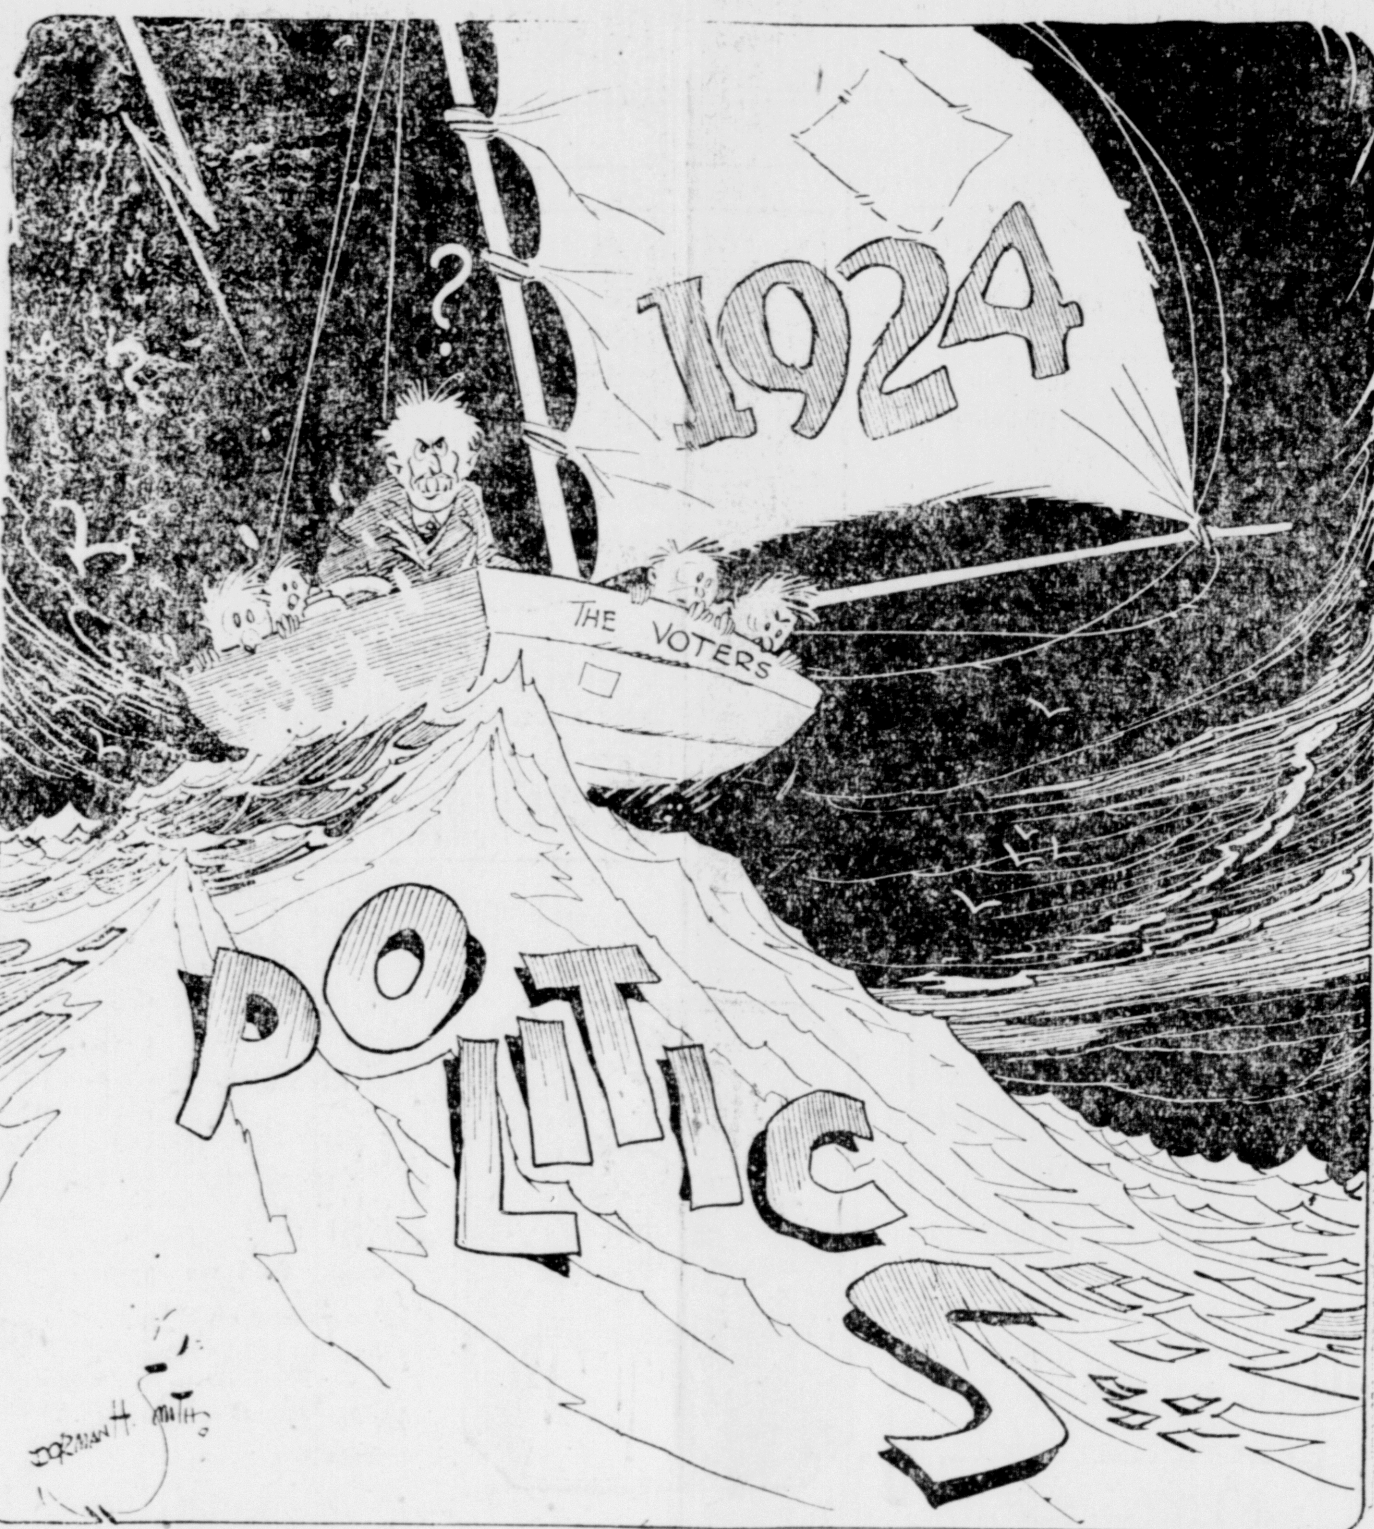

This condition will not obtain in Rush county, it is declared, if the movement for field selection of seed is successful, because a good seed supply will be insured for next year.

The campaign in the schools ended today when Mr. East, Mr. VanMatre and Mr. Farthing visited the Gahimer, Moscow, Milroy, Richland, and Freeman schools.

ORDINANCE IS VIOLATED

Burning of Leaves After 2 P. M. Is Prohibited

Attention was called today by city officials to the violation of a city ordinance concerning the burning of leaves. The ordinance makes it prohibitive to burn leaves after two o'clock in the afternoon, and another section makes it illegal to burn leaves at any time on a paved street. One complaint was made today where parties burned leaves on Morgan street, which has not been in only a few days, and which might do considerable damage to the street. Persons found to violate these sections of the ordinance will be summoned before the mayor, according to the officers.

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED

Legislation Giving Public Service Commission Right of Eminent Domain at Crossings Advised

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 15—Formulation of a program for elimination of the terrible toll of grade crossing accidents was completed by the grade crossings safety conference called by Governor Branch at its meeting today.

All recommendations of the resolutions committee headed by Dixon H. Bynum, chairman of the state industrial board, were adopted.

Chief among these were that a member of the public service commission be appointed "Commissioner of Safety"; that an advisory council of seven members representing the public and various industries of the state be named to serve; and that legislation to give the commission right to eminent domain within 300 feet of a grade crossing to remove obstructions be enacted.

Frank Singleton, member of the public service commission suggested the resolution for formation of a state department of safety.

Singleton recommended that to this department all questions of safety of persons and property as related to the utilities under the jurisdiction of the commission be referred for investigation and recommendation.

LEOPOLD AND LOEB MAY BE TRIED AGAIN

State's Attorney Crowe Considers Trying Them Again if He is Re-elected Next Month

EVIDENCE OF A NEW CRIME

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 15—If State's attorney, Robert E. Crowe, who prosecuted Nathan Leopold and Robert Loeb for their murder of Bobby Frank, is re-elected next month, he will consider placing them on trial again for another murder, which was made known today.

While Crowe refused a statement he admitted conferences with Joseph Tracy, father of Freeman Tracy who was shot to death near the Loeb and Leopold home.

The killing of Tracy is one of the many crimes placed at the hands of the millionaire youths. The father of the victim is known to have given Crowe new evidence said to be proof that Freeman was killed by Leopold and Loeb.

Crowe has a mass of evidence against the youths in connection with investigation of several "mystery crimes."

Should Crowe decide to push new prosecution, the youths would be given to custody by authorities of the Joliet state prison where they are serving life terms for the Franks murder.

CEMENT ROAD IS OPENED

Short Stretch Between Eighth and Eleventh is Completed

The cement road that connects the end of the Eighth street paving to Eleventh street, along the Ft. Wayne road, was thrown open to traffic at noon today by the contractors, Lawrence and Ennis of Arlington. The section of roadway was paved during the last few weeks, and completed three weeks ago, being ready for traffic at noon today.

The work in Morgan street has been delayed for more than two days due to a break in the boilers used in connection with the asphalt plant. It was expected that the plant would be in operation again today, but this afternoon the work of paving the east side of the street had not been resumed. The west side of the street has been thrown open to traffic.

GOOD SAXAPHONE SOLOIST IS RARE

Frank Wiblitzhouser, With United States Marine Band, is One of The Most Noted

HE IS A BORN MUSICIAN

Royal Welcome Awaits Leader Santele and His Great Band of Musicians Here Oct. 29

When Adolph Sax, the noted Belgian-French maker of musical instrument, invented the saxophone in 1840, he laid much stress on its usefulness as a more sonorous substitute for clarinets in military bands, but said little if anything about the adaptability of the peculiarly shaped instruments for solo purposes and in consequence the saxophone soloist has been somewhat of a rare specimen from that time to this.

Nevertheless, many famous saxophone players have developed since the instrument was first given to the musical world, one of the most noted being Frank Wiblitzhouser, of the United States Marine Band, which is booked to appear at the Memorial park coliseum in Rushville for afternoon and evening concerts—3:30 and 8 o'clock—on Wednesday, October 29.

The appearance of the band here is being sponsored by the Daily Republican and the net proceeds will go to the Rush County Child Welfare association and the Boy Scouts organization.

Wiblitzhouser, like all members of the great military band, frequently referred to as the "President's Own" is a born musician, who, through sheer pluck and ability with his instrument has worked his way to the top of the ladder where today he is featured as one of Leader William H. Santele's four star soloists.

Born in Hungary, Wiblitzhouser came to America with his parents as a baby, his friends say, holding tight to a miniature saxophone. When eligible for enlistment he cast his lot with Uncle Sam's fighting leathernecks, where he has remained for sixteen consecutive years, having served for three years in the Philippine Islands, and more than two years in Europe during the world war. He boasts several "service" medals, and is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Owing to his remarkable ability with the saxophone, the fighting musician was assigned to the United States Marine Band seven years ago, and under the skilled eye of Captain Santele, and his own ceaseless practice, he has slowly but steadily risen to the top of his profession.

Commenting on the band's noted saxophone soloist, W. L. Radcliffe, head of the well-known Radcliffe enterprises, under whose management the Marine Band makes its annual tour, said:

"Wiblitzhouser is truly a genius with the saxophone. Nothing pleased the late President Harding more than to hear Frank's remarkable rendition of Tyrolenne Varie, while Mrs. Harding would invariably ask that he play as an encore his other great favorite 'Valse Erica'."

That a royal welcome awaits Leader Santele and his great band of musicians, one-third of whom are noted soloists, when they appear here on Wednesday, October 29, just two weeks from today, is now assured.

ZR-3 COMPLETES OCEAN JOURNEY

Giant Dirigible Arrives at Lakehurst Naval Air Station and is "Walked" Into Hanger

CROSSING TAKES 80 HOURS

Airship and Her Crew Greeted by Crowd at Landing—Demonstration Over New York

(By United Press)
Lakehurst, N. J., Oct. 15—Completing her 80 hour journey from Germany, the Zeppelin ZR-3 arrived at Lakehurst naval station at 9:30 a. m. today.

The dirigible was "walked" into its hanger at 10:40 a. m.

It came on slowly out of the brilliant sunshine and cloudless blue over the eastern horizon and began to descend towards the airdrome where all was in readiness to receive the dirigible.

As she came on, the ZR-3's wire-less crackled out a triumphant message:

"Arrived at Lakehurst 9:30 a. m." Less than four days ago the Zeppelin had cast off its landing ropes at its mother nest of its brood in Freiderchshafen Germany.

In majestic sweeps, the ZR-3 settled towards her hanger. On the ground all was activity. A crew of men jumped to their stations ready for orders. The radio station here tried desperately to establish direct communication with the gondola of the descending craft.

Dr. Eckner at the airship's helm brought her down deliberately. The ZR-3's motors were humming in pleasing unison and she answered the wheel readily, turning from north to south as she descended from 1500 feet to 400 feet.

At 9:50 a. m., precisely, a member of the ground crew at the naval station leaped and caught the first of the descending Zeppelin's landing ropes.

This marked the actual landing of the ZR-3, according to the understanding in airship circles. Other members of the ground crew caught other ropes and the Zeppelin's motors were stilled.

The laborous process of bringing the dirigible down and into her hanger began.

Meanwhile, the airship and her crew were greeted by constant cheers from a crowd held back by ropes stretched along the landing field. Officers and men of the air station waved to those aboard, whose heads and arms were thrust from the windows of the gondolas.

The propellers still whirled almost noiselessly in the bright sunshine as the ZR-3 hovered practically motionless.

Dr. Eckner, the man who had brought her safely across the Atlantic and demonstrated her power by repeated cruising over Manhattan and New York harbor, leaned from a window of the forward car with a megaphone to assist in the landing operations.

American officers took charge of operations, however, once the landing ropes were in the hands of the ground crew. The Zeppelin, which is one of the few spoils of war attained by this country, was drawn down, a prisoner.

At 9 a. m., the Zeppelin was climbing into the sunlight over the lower bay, headed west.

It had made three complete trips up and down over Manhattan and (Continued on Page Three)

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 15—The senate campaign fund investigating committee will go into session in the federal building here Thursday morning if all members of the committee are here, Senator Borah, chairman, announced today on his arrival here from the West.

Borah said he was quite confident all members would be in attendance and that there would be no delay in getting started.

The meeting was called following a charge by Senator LaFollette, candidate for president on the Independent ticket, that the Republicans were raising a "slush fund" or $4,000,000 or $5,000,000 to swing the campaign.

I. U. COEDS ARE RESTRICTED

Not Allowed Possession of Automobile, Dean of Women Rules

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 15—Indiana University student coeds were restricted today from possession of an automobile by order issued by Agnes E. Wells, dean of women.

Another order restricts the women students from motoring outside the Bloomington city limits in company with men students.

The faculty has under consideration an order to prevent the possession of an automobile by any student. The ban is necessary, Dean Wells said, because of the low scholastic standings of students known to have automobiles.

No untoward incident marked the close of the flight. Passing Boston the Zeppelin came steadily on towards her goal. Weather conditions were perfect. She was over Providence at 4:50 a. m. At 5 a. m. she flew low over Newport. Fifty minutes later, New London, Conn., reported her silver shaped body overhead. By 7 a. m. the ZR-3 had reached Mitchell Field, L. I. Escorting planes flew into the early morning haze to greet and escort the Zeppelin but missed her and the ZR-3 came on majestically alone.

A United Press reporter flew in one of these planes which came scurrying back to pick up the dirigible and act as an escort of honor during the brief moments while she was passing over the Long Island Drome.

Twenty minutes after seven, the ZR-3 was over outskirts of New York.

WITHHOLDS RECOMMENDATION

Washington, Oct. 15—After a conference with President Coolidge at the White House today, Chairman Thomas O. Marvin of the tariff commission, announced that it probably would prove impossible for the president to decide upon the recommended decrease in the sugar tariff until after the election.

engineers of the Indiana Highway Commission and of the several counties of Indiana should confer concerning every proposed new construction or reconstruction of public highways across the rights of way of steam and electric railways and should agree upon the elimination or separation of grades, if at all practical to do so," the recommendation continued.

"The commissioner of safety with the approval of the Governor and the public service commission, shall appoint an advisory committee of seven persons, not members of the commission, each of whom shall be a resident citizen of Indiana and shall serve without pay by the state and for such time only as the Governor and commission shall choose.

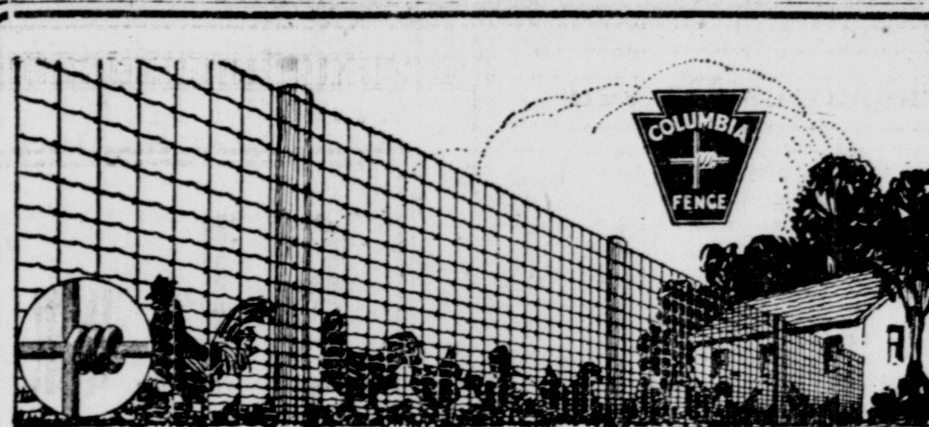

"The persons appointed on this advisory committee may be nominated for such place by the interests named below, and from such nominations one committeeman may be chosen from each of the following: steam roads, electric railroads, electric light and power utilities, automotive associations, municipalities, state department of public instruction, Indiana Farm Federation, and the state highway commission."

The conference opened Monday with addresses from representatives of these organizations recommending means of cutting down the rapidly growing toll of accidents at the 10,000 grade crossings in Indiana.

MOVES TO SEXTON FARM

Frank Warriek has moved from the J. A. Tittsworth farm west of Rushville to the Dr. Sexton farm, west of Rushville, formerly managed by Will L. Brown. His telephone number has been retained, the same as Mr. Brown, 4102, two long, one short rings. Mr. Warriek moved in September from the Power and Jay farm north of Rushville to the Tittsworth farm.

A Woman's Party

Mrs. Charlotte Farrar, formerly Miss Charlotte Sleeth of this city, who is an assistant secretary of the republican national committee, with offices in New York City, says that there is no need for a woman's political party; that the political parties formed by men and in existence for years are sufficient for their needs.Women generally have come to realize this fact, although many were
of the opinion, when first granted suffrage, that a woman's party was the only means of expressing themselves.With their increased knowledge of politics, gained since the suffrage amendment was adopted, women recognize that there must be two great political parties and that unless you belong to one or the other of them, your vote is wasted.They know that to be an independent voter is to throw your vote away for no candidate can succeed unless he has an organization back of him.
They know that to scratch your ticket is "to give aid and comfort to the enemy," since the candidate on the ticket you do not believe in will stand by his party for the things you do not believe in.Suppose you were in a battle, and across from you in the ranks of the enemy, was a woman for whom you had only the greatest respect;School Teacher's Friends Made GladOne of them had this to say yesterday, "We never thought that poor Ellen would ever recover, she had suffered so long from stomach and liver trouble and had lost more than 40 pounds in weight. She took a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy upon the advice of her aunt and has dramatically improved from the first dose. We are all confident of her complete recovery." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service WriterWASHINGTON — Republican confidence that Coolidge will carry the state of New York, with its vitally important 45 electoral votes, is based on the belief that Empire State Democrats are less interested in making John W. Davis president this year than they are in paving the way for Al Smith's nomination for president four years hence.At least that's the point of view gained from G. O. P. dopesters who are paying particular attention to the New York situation.According to these observers, New York's Al Smith fans, commonly dubbed "Smith's fanatics," have neither forgotten nor forgiven their party's refusal to make him the presidential candidate this year, and propose to act accordingly.A GREAT volume of Smith followers, it is claimed, will be loyal to Al Smith first and to the Democratic party afterward.
Because of their loyalty to Smith, they will vote for his re-election as governor. Also, because of loyalty to Smith, they will dodge the top of the ticket, carrying the Democratic presidential electors, and place their cross under either the Republican eagle or the Independent liberty bell.Smith's strength, Republicans freely admit, will give them the fight of their lives, for the New York governorship. Publicly they assert their confidence that young Teddy Roosevelt will pull through by a safe margin, but privately they express their doubts. Unless Coolidge carries the state by approximately half a million, they fear the state ticket will be lost.A S the story of the deep, dark plot goes here, the Smith boosters, by giving all their loyalty and service to the governor's candidacy and cutting Davis, confidently expect to give him a long lead over his party's presi-dential candidate, so long, in fact, that while they count on electing Smith by a substantial vote they also figure on helping snow Davis under in a definite and decisive way.A very large percentage of the Smith vote expected in this pronouncement is expected to go to La Pollette. Under the alleged scheme where it goes doesn't much matter so long as it doesn't go to Davis.BUT what, you ask, would such tactics avail Smith and his friends? How could Davis' defeat advance Al's position for 1928?Simply this, in the answer: If Davis can be put over for governor at the same time New York turns thumbs down on Davis, Tammany and the Smith crowd generally can—and doubtless will —wiggle their thumbs derisively at the Democrats of the south and west who kept them from nominating their favorite for the presidency."If you had done what we wanted," they can say, "you would have had New York and its 45 electoral votes sewed up.""What Al did in running for governor, he could have done while running for the presidency —and more.""What he might have done this year he will still be able to do—and more—in 1928. Better listen to our advice, next time?"SUCH is the gossip, a month before election, of the outcome in New York state—and the forecasted reasons for it—in many circles here. Just to what extent real information is back of it and to what extent it is inspired by malice cannot be told. Both factors doubtless are involved. That the Democrats are much more concerned over the fate of their national than their state ticket in New York, however, is everywhere apparent, and passions lighted at the N. Y. convention still smolder.FIFTEEN YEARS

FANNING WITH FARRELL

Improves New York Boxing

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Oct. 15—Under the direction of a less impetuous though less experienced chairman, the New York Boxing Commission has done a very good job of handling a very fractious sport during the past season. The commission may have made some mistakes, and it has been criticized, but the function of the commission makes it necessary to experiment and to make mistakes.

William Muldoon gave the state a very efficient administration when he was acting as chairman of the commission, but he was too drastic, too hasty in his judgment and too autocratic in his bearing. No one ever questioned the sincerity of the veteran trainer and no one doubted his purpose, but there was general dissatisfaction over his methods.

When Governor Smith had the opportunity to reorganize the commission he could have replaced Muldoon with an appointee of his own party, but he realized the value of Muldoon's experience and the possibilities for using his judgment under restraint. He appointed George Brower a prominent Brooklyn attorney to the vacant place and reappointed Muldoon. Brower was then named as the chairman by the commission, and Muldoon threatened to resign.

To command respect from a class of constituents that is as hard to handle as any supervising body could possibly find, the commission had to be drastic or its purpose would have failed. The commission has made efforts to be firm but wise and it has succeeded in avoiding the ridicule that was heaped upon it under its former administrations.

Of the many good rules that were put in effect by William Muldoon, the one against which most pressure was brought for modification was the one limiting a boxer under 21 years of age to six-round bouts.

Promoters and managers made desperate efforts to have the rule set aside because, at the time, some of the best drawing cards in the business were under age, including Dave Shade, Billy Strubling, Jimmy Slatery, Eddie Martin, Sammy Mandell, Bud Taylor, and several other most promising youngsters.

Against Muldoon's contention that in years of experience as a trainer and a physical culture expert he had found that a boy hurt himself who did too much before he was matured, critics pointed out that practically everyone of the old champions and many of the newer ones, including Joe Lynch, Benny Leonard, Jack Britton, Johnny Dundee, Mickey Walker and Jack Dempsey, had done most of their important boxing when they were in their teens.

Muldoon replied that they would have been better and lasted longer if they had not started so young, and he stuck to his point.

R. H. S. PROSPECTS ARE ENCOURAGING

Forty-Eight Starters in Outdoor Practice Cut Down to 26 When Gym Work Begins

ENGAGE IN BASKET SHOOTING

Large Squad of Players Appear to be in Mid-Season Form—Many New Boys in School

The first indoor practice for basketball was held Tuesday night in the Graham Annex gymnasium, and the big squad of players was put through fast goal shooting practice by Coach Swain.

Prospects are most encouraging, as the boys in practice last night had the appearance of being in mid-season form. There were 48 starters a few weeks ago when the training began out-of-doors. This squad has been reduced to 26, who were on hand for the basket shooting last night.

It may take several weeks before a string of players can be picked to make up the first squad. The coach this year will have an abundance of material from which to select a long list of players, and he can use many different line-ups before getting a set team. Osborne and Davison from the Webb school were in the prospects, but they will be unable to play in a regular game until the second semester.

On the other hand, Elliot, one of the fast Webb players, will be eligible at once. He lived in Rushville township last year, and moved to Jackson township this summer. On account of there being no high school in Jackson township, the pupils come here, and this makes a Jackson township pupil eligible the first semester.

Besides these players, there are several others who have moved in from the townships, and besides all of the second team from last year, and Newbold, McNamara, Lakin, Readle, and Warth of the regulars. These are the basis of the bright hopes for a winning team.

The first games will be with Hope-well here October 31. The complete schedule will be announced in a few days.

Games for preliminary contests with substitutes and second string players will be booked, and plans for a fast second team are being made by Coach Swain. He also expects to put a fast junior high school team in the field.

Which pair is yours?

Who's to Blame?

Do you buy your shoes as you would a paper of pins?

In India only the higher classes wear shoes. The blacksmith when he has a piece of metal to file holds it in a pair of tongs by his feet, doing the filing with both hands that are thus left free. He works sitting on the ground, and sometimes picks up with his feet an object lying out of arm's reach. His toes are wide apart and have something of the character of fingers.

A foot that has never known restrictions of a shoe is supple, strong and free from aches. But a foot that must spend a lifetime in shoe leather needn't become distorted, or calloused, or flat.

The shoemaker can build into shoes the flexibility and natural line that will keep one's feet just as useful for American tasks as the Indian blacksmith's are for his work.

But It Takes More Thought To Buy a Pair of Shoes Than It Does Some Lesser Article

Unless you give your shoe fitter the opportunity of studying your foot requirements you will not give yourself the chance of really enjoying good foot health. If you will buy your next three pairs of shoes of us you will notice the difference in your feet; you will notice how much longer your shoes will wear; you will then get your full money's worth out of your shoes.

Our records show that the steady customer is the one who thinks the most of our shoes, simply because a steady customer turns her foot troubles over to us — And we solve them.

DEALERS SELL WEAPONS AS THEY DO MARBLES

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 15—"As long as the legislature allows dealers to sell deadly weapons like marbles, just as long will I have to send boys to the penitentiary," declared Judge James Collins in sentencing Brooker and Shirley Bell, 19 and 21 to two to fourteen years in the Indiana Reformatory.

The Bell brothers, who are colored, were members of a party causing a disturbance and that opened fire on Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson when the couple demonstrated. Mrs. Anderson was shot six times, and her husband twice, but the wounds were not of a serious nature.

Elva Loraine Elwell Files Habeas
Corpus Proceedings to Get Possession of Child

HELD BY FATHER, R. H. ELWELL

Washington Township Man Ordered
to Appear in Court Thursday—
Live in Washington Township

Elva Loraine Elwell petitioned the court this afternoon for habeas corpus proceedings against her husband, Ralph H. Elwell, seeking to get possession of their five year old son, and the writ was ordered by Judge Sparks.

The complaint for the proceedings was filed following an alleged controversy this morning, as the suit charges the defendant with having struck and abused the petitioner.
The parties are well known residents of Washington township.

The complaint states that the son is in possession of the defendant at the residence a half mile west of Raleigh, on the farm of the late Charles H. Elwell. She asserts in her complaint that she should have the custody of the child, because the defendant is subject to a high temper and uses vulgar and profane language in the presence of the child.

The court acted upon the habeas corpus petition to the extent of issuing a writ, compelling the defendant to have the child in court Thursday afternoon at one o'clock.

A jury was sitting in court today hearing the evidence in a change of venue suit. The action was brought by Levi M. Thomas against the receivership for the Mohawk elevator company in Hancock county, where the suit was filed.

The plaintiff in the action is attempting to recover $1,151 on a claim, which he says is due him from the concern. He was formerly manager of the concern. The defense in their evidence attempted to show that there was nothing due him, and that the books showed he owed the elevator $800 that he was overpaid.

It was expected that the case would be given to the jury late this afternoon. There was no trouble obtained in getting the jury, which was composed of the following:

Ed Miller, Claude Crane, J. E. Campbell, John Osborn, Ted King, Tom Foster, Marion Wagner, Elmer Caldwell, R. P. Havens and James Evans.

The Capitol Lumber company has filed a suit in court against William Hardwick the complaint being on an account, demanding $150 and for foreclosure.

The complaint of Eliza Price against William H. Alzman, a suit on a note, the action has been sent to Henry county on a motion for a change of venue.

BANDITS HOLD UP A BRANCH BANK TELLER

Escape With About $8,000 in Indianapolis at Noon—Leroy Flint Alone in Bank

LEFT $4,662 IN THE VAULT

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 15—Two bandits held up Leroy Flint, teller of the rural branch of the Fletcher Trust and Savings Company bank and escaped with between $7,000 and $8,000 at noon today.

Flint was in the bank alone when the bandits entered. Brandishing a gun one of them commanded, "lie down on the floor and do not move or I will kill you."

The teller complied and the bandits scooped all of the money in the cash drawer and on the counter in the cages. There was $4,662 in the vault of the bank which was opened but the bandits did not touch it.

wall of cement caved in, and he was crushed to death.

SPEAKS TO 520 BOYS AND GIRLS

Russell G. East Finds Excellent Response in Township Schools to Seed Selection Campaign

LAST LEG OF TOUR TODAY

Attributes of Good Seed Are Pointed Out and Pupils Show Willingness to Select Samples

Russell G. East, agricultural agent for the Pennsylvania railroad, had addressed 520 boys and girls of Rush county high schools, when he started on the last leg of his tour of the county this morning, in the interest of field selection of seed corn.

Mr. East is being accompanied on the tour of the county by Herschel VanMatre, county agricultural agent, and Birney D. Farthing, county superintendent of schools.

The tour has demonstrated one thing—that the girls of the township high schools are showing as much interest in the seed corn selection campaign as the boys, and that some classes will have to be arranged for them at the Rush County Corn Show, which will be held in Rushville January 6, 7 and 8.

It has been the custom of Mr.
East, in each school, to ask the boys and girls present, if they will go into the field and select a ten ear sample of seed corn, and without exception every one of them has responded favorably, the girls entering into the scheme even as enthusiastically as the boys.

Mr. East, in his daily talks to the seventh and eighth grade and high school pupils, has made plain to them the very great importance of having good seed to insure a good crop, and that corn growers may be certain of healthful seed only by selecting it while the corn is standing in the field.

The attributes of a good ear of corn are pointed out by Mr. East, such as its shape, the number of rows of kernels and the way it hangs on the stalk. Boys and girls are also warned to inspect the stalk for signs of disease, which would show up in the corn next year if seed from a diseased stalk were selected.

Mr. East went over these points briefly in his address before the Rotary club and thirty corn growers of the county, who were guests Tuesday, and called attention to the statement of a Chicago crop statistician, who estimates that next year's corn crop will not be so good as this year's, taken as a whole, due to the poor quality of the seed that is certain to be used from this year's crop. Mr. East said he had seen no better corn prospects than in Rush county.

This condition will not obtain in Rush county, it is declared, if the movement for field selection of seed is successful, because a good seed supply will be insured for next year.

The campaign in the schools ended today when Mr. East, Mr. Van-Matre and Mr. Farthing visited the Gahmer, Moscow, Milroy, Richland, and Freeman schools.

HOSPITAL REOPENED

The Dr. Frank H. Green hospital was reopened today and three operations for the removal of tonsils and adenoids. The patients were: Marjorie Ann Wilson, age 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wilson of this city; Dorothea Hurst Chance, age 6, of Manilla, and Paul Cameron, age 4, of Connersville.

Burning of Leaves After 2 P. M.
Is Prohibited

Attention was called today by city officials to the violation of a city ordinance concerning the burning of leaves. The ordinance makes it prohibitive to burn leaves after two o'- clock in the afternoon, and another section makes it illegal to burn leaves at any time on a paved street.
One complaint was made today where parties burned leaves on Morgan street, which has not been in only a few days, and which might do considerable damage to the street.

Persons found to violate these sections of the ordinance will be summoned before the mayor, according to the officers.

COMMISSIONER OF SAFETY ASKED

Grade Crossing Safety Conference Also Recommends Advisory Council of Seven Members

Legislation Giving Public Service Commission Right of Eminent Domain at Crossings Advised

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 15—Formulation of a program for elimination of the terrible toll of grade crossing accidents was completed by the grade crossing safety conference called by Governor Branch at its meeting today.

All recommendations of the resolutions committee headed by Dixson H. Bynum, chairman of the state industrial board, were adopted.

Chief among these were that a member of the public service commission be appointed "Commissioner of Safety"; that an advisory council of seven members representing the public and various industries of the state be named to serve; and that legislation to give the commission right to eminent domain within 300 feet of a grade crossing to remove obstructions be enacted.

Frank Singleton, member of the public service commission suggested the resolution for formation of a state department of safety.

Singleton recommended that to this department all questions of safety of persons and property as related to the utilities under the jurisdiction of the commission be referred, for investigation and recommendation.

The commissioner of safety, the

LEOPOLD AND LOEB MAY BE TRIED AGAIN

State's Attorney Crowe Considers Trying Them Again if He Is Re-elected Next Month

EVIDENCE OF A NEW CRIME

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 15—If State's attorney, Robert E. Crowe, who prosecuted Nathan Leopold and Robert Loeb for the murder of Bobby Frank, is re-elected next month, he will consider placing them on trial again for another murder, which was made known today.

While Crowe refused a statement he admitted conferences with Joseph Tracy, father of Freeman Tracy who was shot to death near the Loeb and Leopold home.

The killing of Tracy is one of the many crimes placed at the hands of the millionaire youths.
The father of the victim is known to have given Crowe new evidence said to be proof that Freeman was killed by Leopold and Loeb.

Crowe has a mass of evidence against the youths in connection with investigation of several "mystery crimes."

Should Crowe decide to push new prosecution, the youths would be given into custody by authorities of the Joliet state prison where they are, serving life terms for the Frank murder.

mally charged with murder following his confession of drowning John Frowley, 50, who lost his life in admitted striking Frowley with a club, throwing him out of the boat in which they were riding and preventing him from reentering it.

CHINESE WAR COLLAPSES

Shanghai, 10 p. m. Oct. 15—The British military authorities tonight arrested several Che Kiang generals, including Little Shu, the Ansu leader, causing collapse of the new war which has threatened Shanghai since the defeat of General Lu Yung Shiang. It was indicated the British may assume a general supervision of disposition of the spoils of war between the rival leaders.

CEMENT ROAD IS OPENED

Short Stretch Between Eighth and Eleventh is Completed

The cement road that connects the end of the Eighth street paving to Eleventh street, along the Ft. Wayne road, was thrown open to traffic at noon today by the contractors, Lawrence and Ennis of Arlington. The section of roadway was paved during the last few weeks, and completed three weeks ago, being ready for traffic at noon today.

The work in Morgan street has been delayed for more than two days due to a break in the boilers used in connection with the asphalt plant.
It was expected that the plant would be in operation again today, but this afternoon the work of paving the east side of the street had not been resumed. The west side of the street has been thrown open to traffic.

GOOD SAXAPHONE SOLOIST IS RARE

Frank Wiblitzhouser, With United States Marine Band, is One of The Most Noted

HE IS A BORN MUSICIAN

Royal Welcome Awaits Leader Santelmann and His Great Band of Musicians Here Oct. 29

When Adolph Sax, the noted Belgian-French maker of musical instrument, invented the saxophone in 1840, he laid much stress on its usefulness as a more sonorous substitute for clarinets in military bands, but said little if anything about the adaptability of the peculiarly shaped instruments for solo purposes and in consequence the saxophone soloist has been somewhat of a rare specimen from that time to this.

Nevertheless, many famous saxophone players have developed since the instrument was first given to the musical world, one of the most noted being Frank Wiblitzhouser, of the United States Marine Band, which is booked to appear at the Memorial park coliseum in Rushville for afternoon and evening concerts—3:30 and 8 o'clock—on Wednesday, October 29.

The appearance of the band here is being sponsored by the Daily Republican and the net proceeds will go to the Rush County Child Welfare association and the Boy Scouts organization.

Wiblitzhouser, like all members of the great military band, frequently referred to as the "President's Own", is a born musician, who, through sheer pluck and ability with his instrument has worked his way to the top of the ladder where today he is featured as one of Leader William H. Santelmann's four star soloists.

Born in Hungary, Wiblitzhouser came to America with his parents as a baby, his friends say, holding tight to a miniature saxophone. When el-ligible for enlistment he cast his lot with Uncle Sam's fighting leather-necks, where he has remained for sixteen consecutive years, having served for three years in the Philippine Islands, and more than two years in Europe during the world war. He boasts several "service" medals, and is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Owing to his remarkable ability with the saxophone, the fighting musician was assigned to the United States Marine Band seven years ago, and under the skilled eye of Captain Santelmann, and his own greed for practice, he has slowly but steadily risen to the top of his profession.

Commenting on the band's noted saxophone soloist, W. L. Radcliffe, head of the well-known Radcliffe enterprises, under whose management the Marine Band makes its annual tour, said:

"Wiblitzhouser is truly a genius with the saxophone. Nothing pleased the late President Harding more than to hear Frank's remarkable rendition of Tyrolenne Varice, while Mrs. Harding would invariably ask that he play as an encore his other great favorite 'Valse Erienne'."

That a royal welcome awaits Leader Santelmann and his great band of musicians, one-third of whom are noted soloists, when they appear here on Wednesday, October 29, just two weeks from today, is now assured.

ZR-3 COMPLETES OCEAN JOURNEY

Giant Dirigible Arrives at Lakehurst Naval Air Station and is "Walked" into Hanger

CROSSING TAKES 80 HOURS

Airship and Her Crew Greeted by Crowd at Landing—Demonstration Over New York

(By United Press)

Lakehurst, N. J., Oct. 15—Completing her 80 hour journey from Germany, the Zeppelin ZR-3 arrived at Lakehurst naval station at 9:30 a. m. today.

The dirigible was "walked" into its hanger at 10:40 a. m.

It came on slowly out of the brilliant sunshine and cloudless blue over the eastern horizon and began to descend towards the airdrome where all was in readiness to receive the dirigible.

As she came on, the ZR-3's wireless crackled out a triumphant message:

"Arrived at Lakehurst 9:30 a. m."

Less than four days ago the Zeppelin had cast off its landing ropes at its mother nest of its brood in Freidrichshafen Germany.

In majestic sweeps, the ZR-3 settled towards her hanger. On the ground all was activity. A crew of men jumped to their stations ready for orders. The radio station here tried desperately to establish direct communication with the gondola of the descending craft.

Dr. Eckner at the airship's helm brought her down deliberately. The ZR-3's motors were humming in pleasing unison and she answered the wheel readily, turning from north to south as she descended from 1500 feet to 400 feet.

At 9:50 a. m., precisely, a member of the ground crew at the naval's station leaped and caught the first of the descending Zeppelin's landing ropes.

This marked the actual landing of the ZR-3, according to the understanding in airship circles. Other members of the ground crew caught other ropes and the Zeppelin's motors were stilled.

The laborous process of bringing the dirigible down and into her hanger began.

Meanwhile, the airship and her crew were greeted by constant cheers from a crowd held back by ropes stretched along the landing field. Officers and men of the air station waved to those aboard, whose heads and arms were thrust from the windows of the gondolas.

The propellers still whirled almost noiselessly in the bright sunshine as the ZR-3 hovered practically motionless.

Dr. Eckner, the man who had brought her safely across the Atlantic and demonstrated her power by repeated cruising over Manhattan and New York harbor, leaned from a window of the forward ear with a megaphone to assist in the landing operations.

American officers took charge of operations, however, once the landing ropes were in the hands of the ground crew. The Zeppelin, which is one of the few spoils of war attained by this country, was drawn down, a prisoner.

At 9 a. m., the Zeppelin was climbing into the sunlight over the lower bay, headed west.

It had made three complete trips up and down over Manhattan and

TO PROBE CAMPAIGN FUNDS

Senate Committee to Open Hearing in Chicago Thursday

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 15—The senate campaign fund investigating committee will go into session in the federal building here Thursday morning if all members of the committee are here, Senator Borah, chairman, announced today on his arrival here from the West.

Borah said he was quite confident all members would be in attendance and that there would be no delay in getting started.

The meeting was called following a charge by Senator La Follette, candidate for president on the Independent ticket, that the Republicans were raising a "slush fund" or $4-000,000 or $5,000,000 to swing the campaign.

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 15—Indiana University student coeds were restricted today from possession of an automobile by order issued by Agnes E. Wells, dean of women.

The faculty has under consideration an order to prevent the possession of an automobile by any student. The ban is necessary, Dean Wells said, because of the low scholastic standings of students known to have automobiles.

had circled four times over Brooklyn visiting the Bushwick, Bayridge and Midwood sections and saluting the Brooklyn navy yard as it climbed for altitude over Staten Island.

No untoward incident marked the close of the flight. Passing Boston the Zeppelin came steadily on towards her goal. Weather conditions were perfect. She was over Providence at 4:50 a. m. At 5 a. m. she flew low over Newport. Fifty minutes later, New London, Conn., reported her silver shaped body overhead. By 7 a. m. the ZR-3 had reached Mitchell Field, L. I. Escorting planes flew into the early morning haze to greet and escort the Zeppelin but missed her and the ZR-3 came on majestically alone.

A United Press reporter flew in one of these planes which came swooping back to pick up the dirigible and act as an escort of honor during the brief moments while she was passing over the Long Island Drome.

Twenty minutes after seven, the ZR-3 was over outskirts of New York.

"The commissioner of safety with the approval of the Governor and the public service commission, shall appoint an advisory committee of seven persons, not members of the commission, each of whom shall be a resident citizen of Indiana and shall serve without pay by the state and for such time only as the Governor and commission shall choose."

A Woman's Party

Miss Charlotte Farrar, formerly Miss Charlotte Sleeth of this city,
who is an assistant secretary of the republican national committee, with
offices in New York City, says that there is no need for a woman's political party; that the political parties formed by men and in existence for years are sufficient for their needs.

Women generally have come to realize this fact, although many were
of the opinion, when first granted
suffrage, that a woman's party was the only means of expressing themselves.

With their increased knowledge of politics, gained since the suffrage amendment was adopted, women recognize that there must be two great political parties and that unless you belong to one or the other of them, your vote is wasted.

They know that to be an independent voter is to throw your vote away
for no candidate can succeed unless
he has an organization back of him.
They know that to scratch your
ticket is to give aid and comfort to
the enemy, since the candidate on
the ticket you do not believe in will
stand by his party for the things you do not believe in.

Suppose you were in a battle,
and across from you in the ranks of
the enemy, was a woman for whom you had only the greatest respect;

School Teacher's Friends Made Glad

One of them had this to say yesterday. "We never thought that poor Ellen would ever recover, she had suffered so long from stomach and liver trouble and had lost more than 40 pounds in weight. She took a bottle of May's Wonderful Remedy upon the advice of her aunt and has steadily improved from the first dose. We are all confident of her complete recovery." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach and liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.

while fighting for the same principles you were fighting for was a woman for whom you had only the utmost contempt. Would you give your favors to your opponent and train your guns on the woman who stood for your cause?

Parties are bigger than individuals. They represent ideals and policies which live long after individuals are dead. If we want to help with their program, we can not afford to damage our cause by throwing our influence to the enemy or putting into power those who will do all they can to hinder the things for which we stand.

Candidates are human and are temporary, but party aims are bigger because they are permanent and can be carried on by succeeding generations. We do best by aligning ourselves with the party going in the direction we want to go.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — Republican confidence that Coolidge will carry the state of New York with its vitally important 45 electoral votes, is based on the belief that Empire State Democrats are less interested in making John W. Davis president this year than they are in paving the way for Al Smith's nomination for president four years hence.

At least that's the point of view gained from G. O. P. dopesters who are paying particular attention to the New York situation. According to these observers, New York's A. F. Smith fans, commonly dubbed "Smith's fanatics," have neither forgotten nor forgiven their party's refusal to make him the presidential candidate this year, and propose to act accordingly.

A GREAT volume of Smith followers, it is claimed, will be loyal to Al Smith first and to the Democratic party afterward. Because of their loyalty to Smith, they will vote for him re-election as governor. Also, because of loyalty to Smith, they will dodge the top of the ticket, carrying the Democratic presidential electors, and place their cross under either the Republican eagle or the Independent Liberty bell. Smith's strength, Republicans freely admit, will give them the fight of their lives for the New York governorship. Publicly they assert their confidence that young Teddy Roosevelt will pull through by a safe margin, but privately they express their doubts. Unless Coolidge carries the state by upwards of half a million, they fear the state ticket will be lost.

AS the story of the deep, dark plot goes here, the Smith boosters, by giving all their loyalty and service to the governor's candidacy and cutting Davis, confidently expect to give him a lead over his party's presidential candidate, so long, in fact, that while they count on electing Smith by a substantial vote they also figure on helping snow Davis under in a definite and decisive way.

A very large percentage of the Smith vote involved in this proposition is expected to go to La Follette. Under the alleged scheme where it goes doesn't much matter so long as it doesn't go to Davis.

BUT what, you ask, would such tactics avail Smith and his friends? How could Davis' defeat advance Al's position for 1928?

Simply this, is the answer: If Davis can be put over for governor at the same time New York turns thumbs down on Davis, Tammany and the Smith crowd generally can—and doubtless will—wriggle their thumbs decisively at the Democrats of the south and west who kept them from nominating their favorite for the presidency.

"If you had done what we wanted," they can say, "you would have had New York and its 45 electoral votes sewed up."

"What Al did in running for governor, he could have done while running for the presidency—and more."

"What he might have done this year he will still be able to do—and more—in 1928. Better listen to our advice next time!"

SUCH is the gossip, a month before election, of the outcome in New York state—and the foretold reasons for it—in many circles here. Just to what extent real information is back of it and to what extent it is inspired by malice cannot be told. Both factors doubtless are involved. That the Democrats are much more concerned over the fate of their national than their state ticket in New York, however, is everywhere apparent, and passions lighted at the N. Y. convention still smolder.

The Hodge-Podge

By a Paragrapher with a Soul

No suffering compares with that of a man who knows it all when shown that he doesn't.

The downtrodden people, whom some of our politicians commiserate, are spending two and a half million dollars a day for gasoline, a million a day for radio, equipment, not to mention the million spent daily for amusements on other luxuries.

The outlook for the success of any business depends largely on the intake.

Justice may be blind, but she knows there is no law against the skirts being made shorter.

The poor are not always with us as of old. They are riding around in automobiles and get out of town frequently.

Some folks have the idea that "getting ahead" means passing the car in front.

Gained 24 Pounds Taking Tanlac

John Mith Says Tanlac Put Him in Excellent Physical Shape.

"When I stepped on the scales and found my weight had hopped up from 150 to 174 pounds, I was more than delighted," recently remarked John Mith, a coal miner, living at 1230 Ridgely Ave., Springfield, Ill., in telling of the remarkable results he has obtained from the use of Tanlac.

"Twenty-four pounds more of good firm, flesh means a lot to me, but my wonderful improvement in health means a great deal more. Tanlac will always have a well earned boost coming from me."

"It has put my stomach and kidneys in order, took the pains out of my back, sharpened up my appetite, knocked out headaches, dizzy spells and nervousness and made me feel like a new man. When I ran on to Tanlac I found a real treasure, believe me."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 Million bottles sold.

FANNING WITH FARRELL

Improves New York Boxing

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Oct. 15—Under the direction of a less impetuous though less experienced chairman, the New York Boxing Commission has done a very good job of handling a very fractious sport during the past season. The commission may have made some mistakes, and it has been criticized, but the function of the commission makes it necessary to experiment and to make mistakes.

William Muldoon gave the state a very efficient administration when he was acting as chairman of the commission, but he was too drastic, too hasty in his judgment and too autocratic in his bearing. No one ever questioned the sincerity of the veteran trainer and no one doubted his purpose, but there was general dissatisfaction over his methods.

When Governor Smith had the opportunity to reorganize the commission he could have replaced Muldoon with an appointee of his own party, but he realized the value of Muldoon's experience and the possibilities for using his judgment under restraint. He appointed George Brower a prominent Brooklyn attorney to the vacant place and reappointed Muldoon. Brower was then named as the chairman by the commission, and Muldoon threatened to resign.

or headache, toothache, sciatic

but he was persuaded to take the rebuff in the right spirit and accept some of the discipline that he had been generous in handing out to his subordinates.

To command respect from a class of constituents that is as hard to handle as any supervising body could possibly find, the commission had to be drastic or its purpose would have failed. The commission has made efforts to be firm but wise and it has succeeded in avoiding the ridicule that was heaped upon it under its former administrations.

Of the many good rules that were put in effect by William Muldoon, the one against which most pressure was brought for modification was the one limiting a boxer under 21 years of age to six-round bouts.

Promoters and managers made desperate efforts to have the rule set aside because, at the time, some of the best drawing cards in the business were under age, including Dave Shade, Billy Strubling, Jimmy Slatery, Eddie Martin, Sammy Mandell, Bud Taylor, and several other most promising youngsters.

Against Muldoon's contention that in years of experience as a trainer and a physical culture expert he had found that a boy hurt himself who did too much before he was matured, critics pointed out that practically everyone of the old champions and many of the newer ones, including Joe Lynch, Benny Leonard, Jack Britton, Johnny Dundee, Mickey Walker and Jack Dempsey, had done most of their important boxing when they were in their teens.

Muldoon replied that they would have been better and lasted longer if they had not started so young, and he stuck to his point.

R. H. S. PROSPECTS ARE ENCOURAGING

Forty-Eight Starters in Outdoor Practice Cut Down to 26 When Gym Work Begins

Large Squad of Players Appear to be in Mid-Season Form—Many New Boys in School

The first indoor practice for basketball was held Tuesday night in the Graham Annex gymnasium, and the big squad of players was put through fast goal shooting practice by Coach Swain.

Prospects are most encouraging, as the boys in practice last night had the appearance of being in mid-season form. There were 48 starters a few weeks ago when the training began out-of-doors. This squad has been reduced to 26, who were on hand for the basket shooting last night.

It may take several weeks before a string of players can be picked to make up the first squad. The coach this year will have an abundant material from which to select a long list of players, and he can use many different line-ups before getting a set team. Osborne and Davison from the Webb school were in the prospects, but they will be unable to play in a regular game until the second semester.

On the other hand, Elliot, one of the fast Webb players, will be eligible at once. He lived in Rushville township last year, and moved to Jackson township this summer. On account of there being no high school in Jackson township, the pupils come here, and this makes a Jackson township pupil eligible the first semester.

Besides these players, there are several others who have moved in from the townships, and besides all of the second team from last year, and Newbold, McNamara, Lakin, Readle, and Warth of the regulars. These are the basis of the bright hopes for a winning team.

The first games will be with Hope, well here October 31. The complete schedule will be announced in a few days.

Games for preliminary contests with substitutes and second string players will be booked, and plans for a fast second team are being made by Coach Swain. He also expects to put a fast junior high school team in the field.

Which pair is yours?

Who's to Blame?

Do you buy your shoes as you would a pair of pins?

In India only the higher classes wear shoes. The blacksmith when he has a piece of metal to file holds it in a pair of tongs by his feet, doing the filing with both hands that are thus left free. He works sitting on the ground, and sometimes picks up with his feet an object lying out of arm's reach. His toes are wide apart and have something of the character of fingers.

A foot that has never known restrictions of a shoe is supple, strong and free from aches. But a foot that must spend a lifetime in shoe leather needn't become distorted, or calloused, or flat.

The shoemaker can build into shoes the flexibility and natural line that will keep one's feet just as useful for American tasks as the Indian blacksmith's are for his work.

But It Takes More Thought To Buy a Pair of Shoes Than It Does Some Lesser Article

Unless you give your shoe fitter the opportunity of studying your foot requirements you will not give yourself the chance of really enjoying good foot health. If you will buy your next three pairs of shoes of us you will notice the difference in your feet; you will notice how much longer your shoes will wear; you will then get your full money's worth out of your shoes.

Our records show that the steady customer is the one who thinks the most of our shoes, simply because a steady customer turns her foot troubles over to us -- And we solve them.

The Erring Wife and Mother is the woman who sacrifices her health and consequent happiness to her ambition. We all know such women—women who are anxious that their homes shall be kept immaculately neat and attractive and their children well dressed they overdo and soon bring on some feminine ailment which is evidenced by nervousness, irritability, headaches, backache and other aches and pains attending such ills. Every woman should remember that the most successful remedy for such conditions is Lydia's Pink Pills. Lydia's Pink Pills for Pale People has been restoring women to health, strength and happiness.

DEALERS SELL WEAPONS AS THEY DO MARBLES

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 15—"As long as the legislature allows dealers to sell deadly weapons like marbles, just as long will I have to send boys to the penitentiary," declared Judge James Collins in sentencing Brookner and Shirley Bell, 19 and 21 to two to fourteen years in the Indiana Reformatory.

The Bell brothers, who are colored, were members of a party causing a disturbance and that opened fire on Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson when the couple demonstrated.

Mrs. Anderson was shot six times, and her husband twice, but the wounds were not of a serious nature.
